Jacki:

Last week, I sent you the email below to set up an inspection at your house and I haven't heard back from you – please let me know if you will be available.

Jacki:

Two people who work in the EPA office of air quality enforcement and compliance will be in ND during the week of July 23.

I have invited them to inspect oil wells in your area.

Would you be available to meet with us on Monday July 23 sometime in the mid to late afternoon?
